3. Chicken Pasta. A complete Dog Nutrition recipe

Many people think dogs should eat only protein. This is incorrect. Dogs, like humans, require a variety of food groups especially Chicken, starches, and vegetables to meet their basic nutritional requirements. If dogs eat only protein, they will lack essential vitamins, and this can lead to deficiencies and other health-related issues. If they do not receive enough protein, they may suffer from the poor immune function, muscle deterioration, and blood disorders. So, a balanced diet is essential.

Vegetables are a wellspring of great vitamins and minerals that are great for your furry's bowl. Mostly all green are excellent for their meal, but it is best to start with the basic vegetables like beans, peas, carrots, pumpkin, spinach and so on as they are easiest to digest and absorb. Washed, chopped and lightly cooked when required, this is the ideal way to serve vegetables to your furry companion.

4. Cottage cheese: Cottage Cheese is a delicious food that is high in calcium and protein making it an excellent addition to dog food. Cottage Cheese Soya is a vegetarian recipe of FurrMeals that will add a different taste, texture, and nutritional value to the diet plan. Low in lactose and high in calcium, Cottage Cheese is a dairy product that your furry can safely have without intestinal discomfort. Its taste and texture is something that your furry will love too.

FurrMeals offer two types of Plan:

a). Weekly Plan

One week plan for pets who are new to FurrMeals. A perfect plan to introduce your furry to fresh, wholesome and healthy home cooked real food – let's transition to Good Health. It's time to start feeding healthy!

b). Monthly Plan

Monthly plan for your furry who wants to enjoy the long terms health benefits of real wholesome food. A perfect plan for healthy eating – any time and every time, only health and goodness packed FurrMeals.

Packaging: Each meal is hygienically packed in transparent food grade packaging. Meal packs are measured for the specific nutritional needs of your furry.

Instructions: The convenience factor for meal delivery services is reduced if you have to take out a kitchen scale and to measure spoons multiple times a day. Meals that included direct guidelines — “serve one parcel day by day,” for instance — are best and most convenient, and that is precisely what Furrmeals offers.

The simplicity of serving: We wanted mealtime prep to be as quick and mess-free as possible. We would want you to spend more quality time with your furry rather than spending time cleaning, chopping, cooking and measuring out meals for them. Our meals are measured for one pack one meal, so all you have to do is defrost a package, cut and pour directly into your furry's bowl so no mess no fuss.

FurrMeals is your one-stop destination for home cooked pet food, specially designed for your paw star. Combining the convenience of packaged food with the love and goodness of a home cooked fresh food – it's time to revolutionize pet food!
